Town of Wheaton Update

The Chippewa Fire District has received a letter from the Town of Wheaton stating that they wish to leave the Fire District. The Town of Wheaton will remain as a stakeholder within the Fire District until December 31, 2020.

If you are asked to comment or are questioned about the departure of the Town of Wheaton, you are to direct those comments or questions to the Chief Bernette. Chief Bernette will address these comments as directed by the Fire Board of Directors of the Chippewa Fire District.

It is expected that all members of the Chippewa Fire District will conduct themselves in a professional manner.

It is expected that members will respond to calls as requested per SOPs.

It is expected that members will follow the Chippewa Fire District SOPs.

The members assigned to Station 2 of the Chippewa Fire District have the option to remain with the Fire District by requesting a station transfer prior to December 31, 2020. If a member wishes not to remain with the Fire District, they can submit a letter of resignation.

If you have any question, you are encouraged to follow up with Chief Bernette
